

BILL GIVES PRESIDENT FULL AUTHORITY

MEASURE IS ADOPTED GIVING HIM CONTROL OVER CABLE LANDINGS

This Right Has Been Subject Of Controversy For Fifty Years
--Latest Was Last August When Wilson Refused Landing At Miami Florida.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 18.—The senate bill giving the president authority over cable landings on American shores and empowering him to issue licenses for cable operation, passed today by the house, goes to conference for smoothing out differences between the senate and house before it goes to the president.

The measure has been pressed by the last two administrations and is designed to remove any doubt as to the right of the executive to prevent unauthorized cable landings. This right has been questioned for fifty years.

The latest controversy arose last August when the Western Union Telegraph company undertook to land at Miami, Fla., its cable connecting at Barbadoes, with the British cable to Brazil.

President Wilson refused to issue a permit for the landing on the ground that the proposed cable link would enhance the monopoly enjoyed by the British company over cable landings in Brazil.

Later the Western Union company undertook to connect the cable with its existing Key West-Cuba circuit, but President Wilson revoked the permits and substituted a modified permit which prohibited any connection with a foreign line.

The company took the case into the federal courts, seeking an injunction from the District of Columbia supreme court. The government filed what was practically a cross bill in New York asking that the company be enjoined from further proceedings until a federal permit for landing the cable was issued. The New York court held that the president was without authority to prevent a landing and the government appealed to the supreme court.

RAILROADS HAVE SATISFACTORY WAR SERVICE RECORD

Should be Entitled to Liberal
Settlement Says R. R.
Head

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 18.—American railroads "are good railroads," have a record satisfactory war service and should be entitled to a settlement with the government on a "liberal basis," President A. H. Smith of the New York Central today told the senate committee investigating the transportation situation. The assertion provoked considerable discussion, during which Chairman Cummings said the law makers "never dreamed that the settlement over government ownership would be dragging on this long, but some railroads haven't even presented their accounts."

A statistical summary was presented by Mr. Smith showing that the New York Central in 1918 spent only 64 per cent of its revenues for operating expenses while in 1920 it spent 93.8 per cent. Its revenues had been markedly increased by rate raises and traffic volume. Increase in the cost of labor was the chief factor in the increased cost, he said.

FORMER GOVERNOR INDICTED FOR PEONAGE

(By The Associated Press.)
PENSACOLA, Fla., May 18.—Sidney J. Catts, former governor of Florida was indicted for peonage today by a federal grand jury. The indictment charges that Catts, after obtaining pardons for two negro convicts forced them to work on one of his farms in West Florida. He recently was indicted by the Bradford county grand jury for accepting $70 for a pardon of a prisoner serving a life term for murder.

HOOVER HEADS OPEN DOOR FOR WORLD COMMERCE

Says Certain Combinations Can Become Menace to Peace

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 18.—Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, sounded a warning tonight before the National Association of Manufacturers, that combinations of exporters and importers in various countries again are seeking to dominate certain trades, which, if not remedied can become a menace to the peace of the world.

He made a strong plea for maintenance by all nations of the open door in world commerce. The secretary drew an ovation when he declared the world is surely and slowly making toward economic stability. If Europe can keep the peace for another year, he said, there would be no further cause for American charity.

"I am making a plea for individualism in international economic life," Mr. Hoover said. "If the day comes when I would make a plea for individualism in the life of our own people."

Must Have Free Competition
"It is surely by the individual growth of intelligence, initiative and character that protected equality of opportunity, stimulated by free competition, that we may lift the mass of humanity."

If the day comes when the United States shall be forced to enter upon these courses in her own protection it will be a day of infinite loss to real progress and liberalism.

"We find today," he continued, "that various governments are directly or indirectly lending influence and support to secure for their nationals in countries foreign to them, exclusive concessions over raw materials and the implements of commerce. This will shut the door and close equality of opportunity."

"We find in some countries today the creation of great trusts whose activities can dominate the efforts of individual merchants of other nationalities in foreign trade. At the same time we and many other states continue systematically to prevent great consolidations that might dominate production and distribution."

"All this is of vital interest not only to us, but to many other states. It represents a tendency toward militant exploitation and domination of commerce of which the whole commercial world must take notice."

Chief Justice White Dies Thursday Morning

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Edward Douglas White, chief justice of the United States supreme court, died at 2 o'clock this morning at a hospital here where he submitted to an operation last Friday. He was 76 years old.

The chief justice had been unconscious since late Tuesday afternoon when acute dilation of the heart occurred. Up to that time the attending physicians had hoped for a rapid recovery after an operation for bladder trouble.

After the unexpected relapse the physicians had not expected the chief justice to live thru that night.

The Rev. Father S. J. Creeden of Georgetown University administered the last sacrament during the early evening and members of the immediate family were summoned to the bedside.

Chief Justice Edward Douglas White was strictly speaking, the lone representative of the south on the supreme bench for a number of years.

Coming from a family of judges, his father and grandfather before him having been on the bench, Chief Justice White had had a judicial inheritance as well as legal training. His knowledge of the civil law was generally regarded as the most profound of any man that ever sat on the bench of the supreme court of the United States. He developed a specialty for questions of interstate commerce and his contribution to the law of the land probably will be a permanent one.

He was born in the parish of Lafourche, La., November 3, 1845. His parents were Catholics, and he was of that faith. His education was in Catholic institutions. In his early youth, he attended the school at Mount St. Mary's near Emmitsburg, Md.; later he entered the Saint College in New Orleans, and finally he went to Georgetown College, of Washington, D. C.

Chief Justice White served in the Confederate army during the civil war; practiced law among the people of Louisiana, and became a sugar planter on its lowlands. His ability and high character were recognized by the people in repeated elections as a public official. In 1874 he was elected as senator in the Louisiana legislature. Four years later, he was appointed associate justice of the supreme court of the state.

Becomes National Figure.
In 1891 Mr. White became a national figure. A senatorial contest was waged in Louisiana, and he entered the race. He had managed the campaign of Governor Nichols for re-election and had been prominent in the reform element of Louisiana. He had fought vigorously in favor of the anti-lottery movement. The legislature finally chose him to succeed Senator Eustis.

Chief Justice White was in the senate three years before he was elevated to the bench of the supreme court of the United States by President Cleveland, in 1894. During that period, he distinguished himself on two occasions. Once was in the debate on the anti-option law, when Senator White made a profound legal argument against the constitutionality of the measure. The other occasion was during the struggle over the repeal of the Sherman act, when he advocated the views President Cleveland was known to entertain on the subject. His (Continued on Page Four.)

ONE TIME COUNSEL FOR BERGDOLL WILL ANSWER QUESTIONS

Harry Weinberger Under Trial for Contempt
Makes Change

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 18.—Facing trial by the house of representatives on five separate charges of contempt for refusing to testify before one of its committees, Harry Weinberger of New York, one time counsel for Grover C. Bergdoll, the slacker turned about suddenly today and announced he had decided to answer any questions.

This action ended contempt proceedings, but committee members said his testimony was relatively of no value in the task of trying to fix responsibility for Bergdoll's escape.

Challenges Committee's Right.
First challenging the right of the committee to investigate the escape of a man not actually indicted into the army, Weinberger launched into a long statement, ending with a flat refusal to say what the Bergdolls had paid him, what he had paid other lawyers in the case, and what he had written the late Dr. Clarence Giboney, chief counsel for Bergdoll.

Later in the day, when he decided to answer questions, he testified that he got $5,000 in fees and paid none of it to other lawyers. He knew nothing about the buried gold, he said, for the recovery of which Bergdoll had been released under guard. The lawyer explained that he had decided to answer after learning that Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll had told the committee how much the proceedings had cost.

ARE CHARGED WITH DEFAUDING MANY ILLINOIS FARMERS

Twelve Are Indicted by Federal Grand Jury in Chicago

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 18.—The federal grand jury today returned an indictment against 12 persons connected with the Consumers Service and Supply Company and the Creditors' Protective Bureau Affiliated, both of Chicago, charging they had defrauded Illinois farmers out of $320,000.

The indictment charges that the service and supply company offered for sale farm implements at prices about 15 per cent cheaper than the same articles could be purchased from other concerns.

The prospective purchasers were told, the indictment states, that they designate the company their purchasing agent, at a cost of $5 to the buyer.

Did Not Live Up to Agreement.
Farmers who accepted the offer testified the company failed to live up to its agreement.

Those named in the indictment are Simon P. Lessey, president of the Consumers Service and Supply Company; William M. Crawford, Joseph P. Burkholder, Frederick W. Treppon, Edward R. Treppon, Henry W. Treppon, Allen Cumming, Edward Shoemaker, Walter E. Quigley, Fred T. McNamara, Samuel T. Clark, LeRoy J. Poole.

KESSINGER RENT BILL IS DEFEATED

Springfield, Ill., May 18.—Failing to receive the necessary 26 votes for adoption the Kessinger rent commission bill was defeated by the senate tonight. The vote was 22 to 17.

The bill, the fifth of the Kessinger tenancy measures, enabled cities of 25,000 population and over to establish commissions for the regulation of rent rates. The other four bills have been enacted into law.

HOUSE ADOPTED AMENDMENTS TO UTILITIES BILL

Nineteen of Twenty Holaday Amendments Adopted

(By The Associated Press.)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 18.—Nineteen of the twenty Holaday amendments to the administration utilities bill were adopted by the house tonight. They make minor changes in the bill.

Removal of motor bus and taxicab lines from regulation by the proposed new Illinois Commerce Commission was made when an amendment offered by Representative Tice of Greenview was adopted.

Efforts by Representative Garesche, Democrat, of Madison, to reduce the membership of the commission from seven to five were defeated by administration followers. Another amendment to reduce the number of assistant commissioners from eight to three was also defeated. In his attempt to cut down the membership of the commission Representative Garesche declared that the "home rule" clause will make the larger number of commissioners unnecessary. Answering Representative Garesche's claim Representative Holaday, majority leader, said that the provisions requiring local hearings on complaints in cities which do not adopt home rule will require a larger commission.

The clause providing railroad passes for state officers, legislators, justices and clerk of the supreme court remained in the bill.

Passes Lantz Bill

The senate passed the Lantz grain exchange bill this afternoon by a vote of 26 to 22.

The Lantz bill now goes to the house, where a final fight will be staged. The bill provides that operations of grain exchanges shall be under regulation of the State Department of Agriculture.

Senator Lantz expects to call up the companion bill abolishing trading in futures tomorrow.

The senate recessed until 5 o'clock after the roll call on the exchange bill. Senator Lantz said that he had planned to call the companion measure which prohibits dealing in "futures" today and added that he would seek to have it made a special order of business tomorrow morning.

The anti-futures bill prohibits buying or selling of grain for future delivery unless the vendor is the actual owner of the grain. The vote on the regulatory measure was 26 to 22. The negative votes included all 19 senators from Chicago districts while all the affirmative votes were "downstate" members.

Speeches preceding the roll call were chiefly by supporters of the bill who expressed doubt that the board of trade would be forced to close or go to some other city, as has been argued by opponents of the measure.

"If farmers want a place to market the product of their own labor in their own way," said Senator Lantz, in closing debate.

Opponents said they would strongly contest its passage in the house.

DAVID STARR JORDAN UTTERS GREAT TRUTH

Says Beaten Men from Beaten Countries Were Not Fathers of This Republic—Asserts They are Dangerous.

(By Associated Press.)
Reno, Nev., May 18.—"Beaten men of beaten races were not the fathers of the republic of the United States," said Dr. David Starr Jordan, president emeritus of Stanford university, in his commencement address today at the University of Nevada. He asserted the melting pot does not Americanize people incapable of grasping the ideas of the fathers of this country and said "beaten men from beaten countries are dangerous."

France, he declared to be intolerant and said the democrats of Germany should not be looked at as Hunns but should be encouraged.

"Democracy is going beyond leadership now," he concluded. "It needs service."

DEPUTY SHERIFFS START FOR HONOLULU

San Francisco, May 18.—Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Ormsby, deputy sheriffs of Twin Falls county, Idaho left for Honolulu today to bring back Mrs. Paul V. Southard to answer to a charge that she murdered her fourth husband, Edward Meyer, in Twin Falls. They carried extradition papers for Mrs. Southard which they will present to the territorial government.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR BOMBING OF FORMER GERMAN NAVY BOATS

Experiments Will be Conducted off the Virginia Capes Beginning June 21—Will Turn Over the Battleship Alabama for Experiments—Many Bombs to be Used

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Final plans for the bombing of naval vessels by army and navy aircraft were completed today at a joint conference of officials of the Atlantic fleet and the navy and army service. The experiments will be conducted off the Virginia capes, beginning on June 21, with the bombing of former German submarine U-117 and ending on July 20 with the destruction of the former German battleship Oesterfriesland.

The radio-controlled battleship Iowa will be used in the second test of the series which will consist of searching out the battleship and bombing her from air. The army will withdraw from this phase of the joint operations all of its land forces, using only the seven seaplanes it has ordered from the navy department and four airships or blimps which it possesses.

Other operations will be conducted against the former German cruisers Frankfurt and the Oesterfriesland.

Secretary Denby announced tonight that the navy department had arranged to turn over to the army the obsolete battleship Alabama for such experiments as the army air service may desire to take. After the experiments with the Iowa on June 8, the third phase will take place the forces bombing the former German destroyers on July 13. On July 18 the experiment against the Frankfurt will be held followed two days later by those against the Oesterfriesland.

The operations against the former German ships will be conducted about sixty miles east of Cape Charles, Virginia, where there is sixty fathoms of water. In these the army will participate with the navy using bombs ranging in size from two hundred to two thousand pounds.

Will Station Rescue Craft.
In the case of the German ships, rescue craft will be stationed by the navy between them and the shore but owing to the uncertainty as to the location of the Iowa until after contact has been reported, it will be impossible to provide a line of rescue vessel to the shore. Surface ships will take assigned positions as soon as possible after the contact is made however.

The Iowa will take up a position from fifty to 100 miles off shore between Cape Hatteras and Cape Henlopen and will steam shoreward with the view to reaching the shore before being located and bombed by the aircraft. Navy air boats and army dirigibles will form a scouting line between the two capes and will scout to the eastward for a distance of one hundred miles off shore, or until contact is made.

To some of the former secretary's most intimate friends here he had come before his death a remarkable message dictated by him in the hospital at Rochester, Minn., after the operation. The message showed that Mr. Lane had undergone the operation with full consciousness and acceptance of the fact that he might not survive. It told in detail of his sensations before, during and after the operation of which he was very conscious, as the condition of his heart would not permit the use of a general anesthetic.

The message follows in part: "It is Wednesday afternoon and I am now sitting up in bed talking to my good friend, Coter. Last Friday, I took the step that I should have taken months, (Continued on Page Four.)"

Mr. Edison's list of questions has put the newspaper paragraphers at a burlesque work. Baird Leonard of the New York Telegraph asks 'Who shot what off of whose head?'

Mrs. Bergdoll was fined $7,000 for aiding her slacker sons. If the stories of her wealth are true she will feel that she is getting off easily and possibly isn't at all worried about all the unpleasant publicity since her sons escaped service.

Announcement has been made of the combination of 42 shoe factories with a capital of $40,000,000. Since this combination was made so openly it is probably not in violation of law and restraint of trade. Some "trusts" are able to operate more economically because of their combination with others and the public really benefits from the cooperative action. Let us hope this will be the case of this new shoe organization.

Now probably Mr. Gompers will not be so much offended about the alleged Republican party effort to abolish the railroad wage board. The board has just announced that the wages of a million unskilled railroad workers will be reduced June 1 and has indicated that hearings will be held on the question of reductions for the skilled workers.

Advocates of disarmament were successful in Washington yesterday in making some heavy cuts in the proposed naval appropriations. Expenses of the navy and army make up about 90 per cent of the government expenditures but there are many people who have the feeling that world affairs are not in definite enough condition to warrant any radical disarmament program.

In the senate vote on the Lantz bill yesterday it was practically Chicago vs. downstate. It would be interesting to know whether all the senators voted in accordance with their convictions or set aside those convictions on account of pressure from the "organizations" they dislike to offend. If the bill is passed also by the house, Gov. Small will face a difficult problem. On the one hand are arrayed the farmers and their organizations and Gov. Small is a farmer. On the other are the Chicago grain men and the banking interests, and again the governor is a banker.

Certain it is that the Lantz bill present radical business changes. There are some good reasons for suggesting that if the changes are to be made it will be beneficial if the laws become effective at a date later than July 1, when possibly general conditions may be nearer normal.

MEN WHO "MADE GOOD" AND OST.

It has not needed the compilations of authoritative figures, made in a recent issue of the Literary Digest, the St. Louis Globe Democrat says, to point the fact that the profession of preaching the Gospel is one of the most poorly paid. This compilation has a value as affording a basis for reaching such averages as that in every 100 ministers only one receives more than $4000 per annum, while the average salary paid to ministers, including the rental value of the parsonage is less than $1,000 a year.

This untoward condition has been well understood for quite a number of years. It is not surprising that a lack of graduates from the theological seminaries is beginning to be felt. Young men have not, in recent years, been pressing into the profession with the zeal shown when the rewards of the profession, although smaller than in others calling for equal ability and attainments, were better proportioned to the cost of living. The figures show a much larger number of vacant pulpits last year than in 1914, but really not such an increase as might well have been looked for under conditions which brought so many pastors of small sized and medium class congregations to the crucial point of deciding between engaging in more remunerative occupations or having their dependents suffer destitution in addition to the deprivations they had for long endured. For increase in the cost of living antedated the war by several years, and too poorly paid preachers were of the first to feel its continuing pressure.

Thousands fell away during "the peak" years in prices, but fewer thousands than fell away from teaching and other professions long too poorly paid. A surprisingly large percentage of the men of the cloth have stuck to their poorly paid work during a time when they could easily have found more profitable employment; have sacrificed their opportunities in order to serve. Anybody capable of finding pleasure in witnessing the sacrifices made by others willing to serve can find themselves well pleased in a reading of these figures.

MRS. W. H. RICHARDS DIED MONDAY NIGHT

Well Known Resident of the City Passed Away After Brief Illness—Death Occurred in Same House in Which She Was Married.

Brief mention was made in Tuesday morning's Journal of the death of Mrs. William H. Richards, who passed away at her home, 302 West North street at 11 o'clock Monday night.

Decedent was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christ and was born in Coblenz, Germany, February 14, 1841. At the age of six years she came to America with her parents. They sailed on the Henrietta, the trip taking thirty-one days.

Richards, they were united in marriage June 28, 1865, in the residence where Mrs. Richards' death occurred. With the exception of the years from 1873 to 1876 the family home was always maintained in Jacksonville. Several years ago they observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Richards was a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist, the local branch of the church being formed at her home about twenty years ago. Since that time she has been active in its work.

Mrs. Richards was a woman of high ideals and her greatest pleasure was found in giving service to others. She was devoted to her home and was highly esteemed in the community in which her life was spent.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. H. G. Magill, H. T. Richards, Mrs. Paul Traub, Mrs. C. C. Crandall and Carl S. Richards. All are residents here except H. T. Richards whose home is in Springfield. She also leaves one son, Anthony Christ of Mahtomedi, Minn., and five grandchildren.

LORAIN OVEN HEAT REGULATOR DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration of the Lorain oven heat regulator and the Clark Jewel gas range was made for the domestic science class of the high school yesterday by two representatives of the company. The simple device makes it possible to so regulate the heat that there is no danger of burning. The articles served at the high school yesterday included roast pork, stewed onions, potatoes, stewed peaches, and rice pudding. All these articles were put in the oven and left for several hours without inspection. When they were taken from the oven all had been deliciously cooked. This demonstration was for pupils of the high school only.

Another demonstration will be given this morning at Illinois Woman's college to which the public is invited. Students selected by Miss Jones, head of the domestic science department will place a full meal in the oven at 11 o'clock. Then the oven will be sealed and will not be opened until 3 o'clock. At the same time Miss Jones will give a talk on "My experience with the Lorain."

CRIMINAL CASES TO BE HEARD SOON

Special Venire of Jurors Summoned—Trial of Laura Duncan Charged With Murder Set for Tuesday—Mallory Will Case on Trial.

Several criminal cases are on the docket for hearing in the circuit court next week. The trial of Mrs. Laura Duncan for the murder of Harry Perry, Jr., is set for Tuesday. In order to make ready for that event Judge Jones ordered a special panel of 50 jurors.

Mrs. Duncan has been in jail since the evening of Dec. 24, when she shot and killed Perry at her home on Davenport street. All the defendants against whom charges are pending were in court yesterday morning. Judge Jones appointed Morrison Worthington to defend Frank Melton and Marion Johnson, who are charged with grand larceny, and Harold Scott, who will go on trial for burglary.

Various cases. Yesterday the jury which heard the evidence in the case of Harry Wilson vs. Florence Simpson et al., brought in a verdict finding in favor of Mr. Simpson. In this proceeding Harry Wilson sought to collect 6c a bushel for corn he husked for Mr. Simpson, instead of 5c per bushel. The jury agreed that 5c was the proper and contract price and decided that the plaintiff must pay the costs of the suit.

The jury was secured just before the closing of court for the Mallory will case. Mrs. Blanche Mallory Williams, daughter of Edward Mallory, is seeking to break his will. It is maintained that Mrs. Mazie Mallory, step-mother of the complainant, exerted undue influence on the testator.

In the will Mr. Mallory made only a small bequest to his daughter, Mrs. Williams. Hugh P. Green is representing Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Mallory's attorney is Carl E. Robinson.

Burns Coal or Gas

The Glenwood Combination Cook Stove

The Glenwood is the perfectly arranged Gas and Coal Combination Range. It is really two stoves in one—each independent of the other. You can cook with coal and gas at the same time if you wish. It is even equipped with two ovens—a high oven for gas, the regular oven being heated with coal. With all these advantages it is built so compactly it is no larger than an ordinary coal range. We want to show you this range. It is rapidly gaining admirers.

—We told you last week in this space that we were making a "special showing for those men who want something just a little better," of genuinely high grade serges and worsteds for summer suits.

—We told you that we would sell these tailored-to-order suits at $46.00, and that we were able to do this because of buying direct from the manufacturer and thereby eliminating several middlemen's profits.

—A large number of men took advantage of this opportunity last week—so many in fact that we are able to continue the offer this week. Remember, your choice of the season's best weaves—Blues, Browns, Stripes, Checks and the light mixtures.

novel and western. I once saw a man hanged. And I have seen several men shot and came very near going that way myself two or three times. I was being shot at because I was a newspaperman and I should have been shot at. There must be public concern in what is printed as well as its truth to justify it. After the earthquake in San Francisco I saw walls topple out upon a man. And I have had more intimate glimpses still of the picturesque and of the prosaic ways of which men come to their taking-off.

"But never before have I been called upon to deliberately walk into the valley of the shadow, and, say what you will, it is a great act. I have said during the past months of endless examination that a man with little curiosity and little humor and a little money, who was not in too great pain could enjoy himself studying the ways of doctors and nurses as he journeyed the invalid's path. It has, indeed, made a flowery path for me as much as any path could be in which a man suffered more humiliation and distress and thwarting and frustration on the whole than he did pain.

"But here was a path the end of which I could not see. I was not compelled to take it. My very latest doctor advised me against taking it. I could live some time without taking it. It was a bet on the high card that at this point occur details regarding the preparations for the operation.

The statement continues: "Often I had said to myself that I should summon to my mind when this moment came some words that would be somewhat a synthesis of my philosophy. Socrates said to those who stood by after he had drunk the hemlock, 'no evil can befall a good man whether he be alive or dead.'

"To apothegm, however, was not opposite to me, because it involved a declaration that I was a good man and I don't know anyone who has the right to so appreciate himself. And I had come to the conclusion that perhaps the best statement of my creed could be fitted into the words 'I accept' which to me meant that if in the law of nature back into the great ocean of spirits my one duty to conform. 'Lead Kindly Light' was all the gospel I had. I had accepted."

nomination to the bench ended a memorable contest in the senate. Two New Yorkers had been nominated by President Cleveland, but both failed of confirmation. Narrowing to the winds the custom which for eighty-eight years had kept a New York man on the bench, Mr. Cleveland named Senator White. He was confirmed within an hour.

Almost as unusual as his appointment as associate justice was his elevation to the chief justiceship. In 1910, when President Taft was besought by various factions of the Republican party to appoint first this man and then that, to succeed Chief Justice Fuller, the president boldly disregarded the custom regarding the selection of justices from his own party and that preceded frowning on the promotion of an associate justice to the chief justiceship, and sent to the senate the nomination of Justice White. His nomination was confirmed immediately.

The incorporators were: Swan Lindskold, Joseph Martus, Frances Lindskold. The firm was incorporated at $125,000 to deal in gravel, lumber and other building materials.

Washington, May 18.—Recent announcement by a group of building and road material makers of a drive against high freight rates has delayed conferences with railroad officials at which direct application for relief was to have been made, according to E. Guy Sutton, one of the group and representing the National Organization of Sand and Gravel Producers.

RETURNS FROM STAY IN ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

Miss Nellie R. Callaway has returned to her home in Chapin after a stay of several months in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She expressed herself as very much pleased with the southwest but nevertheless is glad to once more be at home. Miss Callaway found life among the Mexicans and Indians very interesting and declared that the mountains and desert possessed a strange fascination for her. Of New Mexico Miss Callaway says:

"In this lovely climate thousands have found the road to health. Sun-drenched Albuquerque 'in the heart of the well country' is a city of hospitals, where they learn to smile on even the morning brings no hope. New Mexico was not herself when I left Monday, for it was raining just as it does in Illinois. We had few rains during the winter and they were of short duration, followed by sunshine. The Rio Grande valley was all alive and green, in marked contrast to the desert waste, showing the results of irrigation."

During the most of the day yesterday, the captains were busy bringing in the personnel of their teams who will go out in the drive next week to solicit for membership for the Chamber of Commerce. There has been a very fine response by the captains in seeing their workers. The team organization is now practically complete.

Having told the readers of the Journal why Jacksonville should have a Chamber of Commerce and what it can do, the executive committee today makes the answer below to the question of who is going to run the organization in this city. This is the third of the five questions which have been asked; the others relating to the finances of the chamber and its permanency as a community movement will appear in later issues of this paper.

Democracy Rule

Who is going to run the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce? The members are going to run it. In the modern Chamber of Commerce, which is what Jacksonville is going to have at the end of the organization movement next week, every member is on equal footing. Each pays the same dues, each has one vote only, each has the right to nominate for office, each has as loud a voice as any other in the making of the program of work and each will be called upon to exercise all these rights.

Under the old plan, nominations were made by committees, committees were named by the president alone or in consultation with the secretary, and quite often the program of work, if there was one, was built by one or two individuals. Naturally this system led to the "one man" control or control by a small group. The member who felt that he was one of the obscure majority was too indifferent to come out of the background and presently after joining the chamber he substantially withdrew, and in a year or two stopped paying dues. He was "not interested."

The organized Chamber of Commerce will be conducted along the new plan—again the boiled down result of dozens of experiments—of insisting that the members, all the members, shall say who shall hold office, and be the directors, and what planks shall compose the platform or program of work.

It is the fundamental principle of the organization movement that the full membership shall direct the thought and life of the Jacksonville chamber.

The Election Plan

The election of the new directors and officers will take place at once upon the completion of the membership campaign. The election machinery is of the simplest character. Each member will be provided with a ballot bearing the name of every member so arranged that he may vote for whom he chooses. A complete list of the membership will be a part of the ballot. The men elected to the board of directors will be the ones receiving the largest number of votes, cast secretly and not influenced by any other consideration than merit.

This is democracy reduced to its simplest form. Fitness, in the opinion of his fellow citizens, will alone determine whether a member shall hold office. Ability and willingness to serve his community will alone keep a man in office once he has been elected to it for it is apparent that any director who fails to measure up to the expectations of his fellow members will not be re-elected.

How the committees will be chosen was explained in the answer to the question of what the Chamber of Commerce can do.

The Members Forum

Under the modern plan the member's forum will be an important feature of the organized Chamber of Commerce. It will be the medium of communication between the officers and directors and the membership. It will frequently hold luncheons and meetings, if so determined, bringing together the membership to hear the presentation and discussion of new projects. It will check up the progress of the work of the committees. It will bring speakers on important subjects to the chamber to assist the community in the solution of its problems. It will be the dynamo which will give motion and action to the chamber as an organization.

The members' forum organization is so planned that it reaches by distinct groups the individual members and is thoroughly alive to the thought and pulse of the membership as a whole. It is an organization within an organization and is responsible for the efficiency of the chamber and its financial standing.

It is needless to say that the members' forum is made up of all the most progressive and ready workers in the organization.

The whole purpose of the Chamber of Commerce, first and last, is to bring together the most responsible and capable men and women in the city and keep them at work for the good of the city. Through frequent social meetings, the acquaintance of each individual member is broadened, friendships are established and there grows up a confidence and optimism which are the two intangible but compelling forces which carry a community forward.

WHAT A WOMAN SHOULD DO WHEN SHE IS WEAK AND NERVOUS

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN HAVE SURPRISINGLY INCREASED THEIR STRENGTH, ENERGY AND ENDURANCE IN TWO WEEKS TIME BY THIS SIMPLE EXPERIMENT.

On account of the terrible weakness, nervousness and alarming symptoms, which are often produced by iron starvation of the blood, the sufferer frequently never suspects the real cause of her trouble but thinks she has some other ailment. As a result of iron starvation you may suffer from headaches, dizziness, shortness of breath or heart palpitation, pain across the back, loss of memory, weak willpower, melancholy or the "blues," disturbed digestion, loss of appetite, sleepless nights, night sweats and so on. In such case do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration but eat more spinach and green vegetable, and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with you for a while and see what a difference it makes. Be sure the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take. Metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, while organic iron like Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils, apples, etc. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

Many Skin Diseases Show Your Blood Is Out of Order

Many "skin diseases" have their origin deep down in the blood—not in the skin at all. Don't ever imagine you can end the flaming, maddening itch of these merely by rubbing on an ointment or lotion. Those conditions caused by poisons in the blood must be removed before you can expect freedom from the torturous itching that plagues you now.

For the last fifty years thousands of people have cleansed their blood with S.S.S., the famous old vegetable remedy discovered by the Indians. We have their testimonials telling how well it served them for this.

If you suffer with skin troubles, get S.S.S. from your druggist and start taking right now. Then write us about your case and we will send you expert medical counsel free. Address Chief Medical Advisor, 875 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Local applications may soothe and give you peace for a short while, but when their effect wears off the maddening itch returns all over again, driving you half crazy with pain and upsetting your whole nervous system. The only way to get complete

Daily Market Report

DECIDED UPTURNS IN PRICE OF WHEAT

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Decided upturns in the price of wheat resulted today from unfavorable crop reports and from more active export demand. The market closed 2 to 3¢ net higher with May $1.48½ to $1.48¾ and July $1.18¼ to $1.18½.

Corn gained ½ to 1¢. Oats ½ to ¾ and provisions 1c to 3¢.

It was only at the start that wheat showed any tendency toward a setback. Forecasts of lower wages for railroad employees counted at first as a bearish influence, the prevailing opinion being that the expected wage cut might be taken to indicate a downward movement of costs in general. Offerings of wheat, however, were quickly absorbed and the market then moved upward fast. About 1,000,000 bushels of cash grain were said to have been taken for export. Closing quotations were at the topmost level of the day.

Active shipping demand for corn helped to lift the market for corn and oats. Country offerings of corn were somewhat larger but mostly above the market.

Provisions went higher in sympathy with grain and hogs.

TRADING PRESENTED TWO DISTINCT ASPECTS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 18.—Trading in the stock market today presented two distinct and divergent aspects. Rails were active and strong at gross advances of 1 to 3 points while numerous industrials and specialties irregularly extended recent losses. The movement in transportation had its inception in the overnight announcement that the United States Railway Labor Board had decided upon a downward revision of wages, amounts not yet determined, effective July 1st.

Junior or secondary issues benefitted almost as much as the more seasoned or dividend paying shares. Heaviness of industrials was due mainly to doubt respecting the action of the Republic Iron and Steel directors on the quarterly dividend.

Similar incidents of the day included the passing of the Pacific Mail semi-annual dividend and a fifty per cent cut in the quarterly dividend of Cuban-American Sugar. Oils, especially the Mexican, were heavily traded in but Mexican Petroleum finished at a nominal gain. Sales amounted to 675,000 shares.

The money market followed its undeviating course of the last few days, all call loans being made at seven per cent foreign exchanges were strong, sterling duplicating its recent high at four for demand bills, Dutch, Italian, Spanish and German remittances eased. There were few features to the bond market, trading in that quarter falling off somewhat from yesterday's fairly large total. Changes in domestic and foreign issues, including the liberty bonds, were mostly toward moderately lower levels. Actual sales (par value) $9,375,000.

FAMOUS BOXER IS VISITOR IN TOWN
Tommy Ryan, undefeated middleweight champion of the world, arrived in the city last night and today will give two lectures at the David Prince school and an exhibition in the gymnasium in the evening.

Ryan, whose real name is J. M. Juvenal, is one of the most famous boxers the world ever knew. For many years he held the middleweight championship, retiring undefeated when nearly fifty years of age.

Now at the age of 71 years Ryan looks to be about 40 and his excellent physical condition he attributes to clean living. He has never used liquor and tobacco in any form and always has been an active out of doors man.

Mr. Ryan is traveling over the country talking to the boys and girls on the value of clean living. There is no man better qualified to speak along these lines as he is a living example of what right living can do.

This morning he will make an address on this subject to the pupils of the Junior high school and this afternoon he will make a similar lecture to the pupils of the high school.

This evening Mr. Ryan will give an exhibition in David Prince Gymnasium. He is accompanied by his daughter who assists him in this exhibition.

In addition to being one of the most scientific boxers in the world Mr. Ryan developed the art of bag punching until he gives an exhibition that is most marvelous. He has long been recognized as one of the greatest bag punchers in the country.

Was Engaged in War Work
During the world war Mr. Ryan was engaged in war work and spent much time overseas with the American expeditionary forces. He has seen both the front and the rear in action but is averse to expressing an opinion as to the outcome of their coming match.

It is interesting to hear Ryan talk. He is of Scottish descent and not Jewish as has been popularly supposed. He has traveled the world over and engaged in boxing bouts in many lands.

When Theodore Roosevelt was president Ryan acted as his physical trainer and also looked after the physical welfare of the Roosevelt boys. At the former president's death it became known that he had lost the sight of one eye which occurred in a sparring exhibition with Ryan. One of the latter's most prized possessions is a personal letter from Mr. Roosevelt expressing appreciation of the benefit the president's sons derived from Ryan's training.

In his exhibition this evening Mr. Ryan will use the same punching bag platform he used when he trained Jeffries for his first battle with Fitzsimmons. At the time he took charge of Jeffries he was a man of marvelous strength and physique but possessing little or no science.

Ryan took him in hand and developed the famous Jeffries crouch and also made a finished boxer of him. To Ryan was always given the credit for Jeffries' victory over Fitzsimmons and later when he fought Corbett the second time he had developed so much that Corbett himself acknowledged that Jeffries actually outboxed him.

Those who appreciate seeing an exhibition of athletics of the highest type should attend the exhibition this evening in David Prince gymnasium. A nominal admission fee will be charged but it will be well worth the price.
